30 October 2019

Macro developments

- As per news reports, a Committee of Secretaries (CoS) will be formed to look at options for relief package to the telecom sector, in the wake of SC's current ruling on AGR. CoS will consider proposals such as: providing two-year moratorium on spectrum payments-for FY20 & FY21, reduction in USOF component of license fee (5% of AGR) and in spectrum usage charges. This would ensure financial viability of the sector.
- US consumer confidence dropped to 125.9 in Oct'19 vs 126.3 in Sep'19 and est.: 128, lowest reading since Jun'19. While the consumers remained confident about the present conditions. Future expectations took a hit led by growing concerns over business conditions and job prospects. This comes ahead of the expectation of rate cut by Fed.
- Retail sales in Japan rose to its highest since CY14 by 9.1% in Sep'19 on YoY basis vs 2% in Aug'19. On a MoM basis as well, retail sales increased at a far higher pace (7.1%) than estimated (3.5%). This was driven by higher sales of cars and household durables, due to front loading of spending before the sales tax increase (10% vs 8% earlier) w.e.f 01 Oct 2019.
