Global markets remained watchful of the latest developments on global tariff front. Among the latest one has been some communication from US President hinting at imposing reciprocal tariffs on country-by-country basis, targeting to incorporate even non-tariff barriers. This is expected to be as early as Apr'25. Sector wise, new tariffs are also targeted on auto sector and is expected to begin around this same time. Separately, ECB official spoke of headwinds emerging from geopolitical fragmentation and rising protectionism. Fed official also warned of being cautious in its future policy response. On macro front, US retail sales data softened (-0.9%, MoM against est.: -0.2%). Eurozone GDP picked pace on QoQ basis (0.1% against est.: 0%). On domestic front, RBI ramped up OMO purchase to Rs 40,000 crore against earlier Rs 20,000 crore in the wake of persistent deficit of durable liquidity.

- Except China and Hong Kong, stocks elsewhere closed lower. US markets ended broadly weaker led by a sharp drop in retail sales. Investors also monitored further developments on tariffs. Renewed optimism over AI led to a rally in tech stocks in China and Hong Kong. Sensex ended lower, marking an 8-day losing streak. Capital goods and power stocks declined the most. It is trading further lower today in line with other Asian stocks.
