C&W and EMS bolster aggregate revenue: Our consumer durables coverage grew 20% YoY on average in Q2FY24, underpinned by the cables & wires (C&W) and electronics manufacturing services (EMS) segments. Aggregate EMS revenue grew 30% YoY in Q2. Domestic C&W demand was robust amid improving trends in capex and real estate, with aggregate revenue growth at 21% YoY despite a 10-11% correction in copper prices (pass-through) during the quarter.

Lower raw material costs negated by A&P spends: Most players did not take any major price hikes during Q2, barring CROMPTON which raised fan prices in September. Raw material costs moderated, enabling aggregate gross margin expansion of ~70bps YoY, but higher A&P spends limited EBITDA margin gains to ~40bps.

BLSTR stood out in room AC segment: Backed by volume growth, BLSTR's unitary cooling products (UCP) topline increased 39% YoY to Rs 7.3bn, which compares favourably with VOLT's 15.4% and Llyod's 18.5% YoY prints for the quarter. The company's EBIT margin also expanded 220bps YoY to 8.4%, whereas VOLT reported an increase of only 40bps to 7.7%. Lloyd continues to report losses.

DIXON led the EMS charge: EMS companies under our coverage delivered a robust performance in Q2, growing 30% YoY. DIXON, which accounted for 75% of our EMS universe revenue, looks to maintain strong return ratios and positive cash flow. AMBER's focus is on expanding its non-AC businesses. SYRMA saw lower margin slippage due to a change in revenue mix toward the consumer business.

FMEG a mixed bag: In fast-moving electric goods (FMEG), B2B categories such as industrial switchgears, professional lighting and power cables saw healthy growth. Lighting delivered decent volume growth, but price deflation in LEDs hurt the segment's topline. Premiumisation in fans continues with high-end products faring well.

Top picks: HAVL (TP Rs 1,600), DIXON (TP Rs 6,300) and POLYCAB (TP Rs 6,100) are our top picks, with DIXON being added to our preferred list in the wake of strong Q2FY24 results and an even stronger outlook.
