Commentary

- Nifty remained sideways and closed on a flat note on Thursday. Bank Nifty, on the other hand, attempted a bounce back after a gap-down opening but faced rejection near the 59200 level and eventually closed below 59000.
- The IT index provided strong support to the broader market, while sectors such as Auto, Consumer Durables and Pharma recovered after initial selling pressure.
- For Friday's session, the 25700-25900 zone is expected to act as an initial range for Nifty, with a breakout from this band likely to provide directional clarity. Bank Nifty appears to be range-bound between 58700 and 59200.
