Commentary

- Buyers failed to capitalize on the gap-up opening on Thursday as Nifty faced rejection around the 25450 level. However, the index recovered more than 100 points during the final trading hour from the day's low of 25168. Bank Nifty witnessed an indecisive close after a volatile session within the broader range of 58800-59600.
- Weakness extended in the Realty and Consumer Durables space, while the Pharma index (+1.59%) saw a bounce from the support zone of 21450. PSU Banking (+2.34%) was the only segment that continued to show strength post opening.
- Going forward, the 25450-25500 zone remains a crucial resistance for Nifty, and a positive outlook can be adopted only upon sustained trading above this zone. On the flip side, a breakdown below 25120 on Friday would add pessimism to the broader market setup.
