Commentary

- Nifty closed in the red for the fourth consecutive session, shedding another 100 points and ending well below the 26000 mark. Bank Nifty, however, showed signs of a late-hour bounce, managing to close above the critical 58700 level.
- FMCG and PSU Banking stocks provided support to the market, while most other major sectoral indices ended in negative territory. The Metal index witnessed significant offloading as price failed to sustain above the resistance zone following a gap-up opening.
- The market currently appears to be in a sideways phase as participants await the Union Budget 2026-27. Nifty and Bank Nifty are hovering near the 26000 and 59000 levels respectively, with 25700 and 58700 acting as crucial support zones.
