Miss estimates; maintains leadership

- Q2 revenue and EBITDA below estimates; 10% YoY drop led by a sharp 23% decline in UCP sales (-23% YoY) amid weak RAC offtake
- EMP revenue grew 10% partially offsetting UCP drag, segment profitability significantly improves (430bps YoY)
- Cut FY27–28 estimates by 6%, roll forward to Sept'26 TP of Rs 1,440 (SOTP basis); maintain HOLD on limited upside

Misses estimates; UCP revenue declined 23% YoY: Voltas delivered another weak quarter in Q2FY26, with revenue declining 10% YoY to Rs 23.5bn (7% below our estimate) as UCP sales remained subdued (-23% YoY). Gross margin softened 100bps YoY to 24.8%. EBITDA fell 57% YoY to Rs 704mn, a 38% miss vs our estimate, with margin contracting 320bps YoY to 3.0% (vs est. 4.5%). Profitability was weighed down by muted secondary offtake, elevated channel inventory, higher marketing spending (support to channel), and under-absorption at the newly commissioned Chennai and Waghodia facilities. Adjusted PAT declined 76% YoY to Rs 315mn.

EMP segment revenue growth (+10% YoY) partially offset UCP drag: The EMP segment registered strong growth with revenue up 10% YoY to Rs 9.7bn and EBIT rising to Rs 920mn, driving margin expansion to 9.5% on steady execution across domestic and international projects. EPS revenue declined 5% YoY to Rs 1.4bn; while EBIT increased 11% YoY to Rs 439mn and margin expanded to 31.6%, supported by stable performance in mining and construction equipment, steady textile machinery execution and continued after-sales contribution.

Emerging growth drivers in the project business; improving UCP outlook: Voltas is seeing early signs of renewed momentum in its projects business, led by healthier order book and improving execution cycles. The project segment also witnesses renewed growth in drivers such as demand for cooling from data centers and district cooling centers, however it remains small in the overall order book (current 2-5%, potential to reach 30% of the order book). Management commentary also turned incrementally positive, highlighting optimism around a recovery in UCP demand as channel inventory normalizes, expect December to report growth.

Cut estimates, maintain HOLD: We cut our FY27-28 earnings by 6% to capture temporary UCP softness. We change our valuation methodology to SOTP basis and arrive at Sept 26TP of Rs 1440 (vs June 26TP of Rs 1400). We remain cautiously optimistic about stock as inventory situation remains a key monitorable. We maintain HOLD.

Earnings Call Highlights

Industry demand and GST / BEE triggers

- Management reiterated that H1 was weak for cooling products owing to an extended monsoon and GST-related demand deferment, but stressed that demand has been deferred, not destroyed.
- The GST rate cut on RACs from 28% to 18% is already supporting an uptick in secondary offtake and is expected to be a key demand catalyst in the coming summer (Q4FY26) as channels restock.
- The upcoming BEE energy change effective 1 Jan 2026 is another important trigger, with dealers likely to pre-buy old BEE rating SKUs in late Q3 given the 3-6 month sell-through window, supporting both primary volumes and mix in H2.

Unitary Cooling Products (RAC + commercial AC + other cooling)

- UCP had an atypically soft quarter, with lean-season demand and the GST announcement in late September prompting delayed purchases and elevated channel inventory, necessitating higher market support and weighing on margins.
- Despite this, Voltas' RAC market share continued to improve sequentially from ~16% in Q4FY25 to 17.8% in Q1FY26 and further to 18.5% in Q2FY26 widening the lead over the No. 2 brand to ~3ppt and reinforcing its position as clear category leader.
- Within UCP, commercial air-conditioning (VRF, ducted, cassette, centrifugal chillers) and commercial refrigeration are scaling well and are positioned as the next growth engines, backed by aggressive channel expansion and an enlarged product portfolio.
- Looking ahead, management expects UCP performance to strengthen through H2 as GST-led affordability, BEE rating change driven channel stocking, and improved fixed-cost absorption at the Chennai and Waghodia plants take hold. While no numerical guidance was provided, they indicated that UCP margins should improve as volumes recover and cost-optimisation/value-engineering initiatives on new BEE-compliant products begin to flow through.

Voltbek home appliances

- Management reiterated that Voltbek is firmly in the investment phase with marketing and distribution spends geared towards building a scaled, premium home-appliance brand and that the immediate focus is on share and footprint rather than near-term profitability.

Electromechanical Projects & Services

- Management noted that the EMP segment continued to provide stability, backed by a strong Rs 62bn order book, comprising ~Rs 48bn of domestic projects and ~Rs 14bn from international operations. It was highlighted that the domestic infra portfolio is now well diversified across MEP, electrical & solar, and water, with a balanced distribution across these verticals.
- Voltas indicated that MEP is largely private sector driven, whereas electrical/solar and water businesses are supported by government infrastructure spending, ensuring steady visibility. The company emphasised that disciplined order selection and faster execution have helped maintain a consistent, non-volatile margin profile, avoiding sharp quarter-to-quarter swings.
- Management indicated that project margins remain steady and sustainable, supported by disciplined project selection and faster execution. They noted that the margin profile of the EMP business is structurally stable and avoids the typical volatility seen in project segments. On medium-term drivers, the company pointed to data centres and district cooling as significant opportunities. Data-centre MEP, currently <5% of the MEP portfolio, was noted as an area that could scale meaningfully potentially towards ~30% as centrifugal chiller and low-side works gain traction.

Channel inventory, working capital and trade support

- Management acknowledged that channel and on-book inventories remain elevated after the weak summer season, but pegged combined brand + channel stock at roughly two months a level they do not see as alarming, especially ahead of the stocking cycle for the next summer and the BEE rating change.
- Support to channel partners is focused on enabling sell-out (subsidised installation, enhanced consumer-finance schemes, tactical sales-out programmes) rather than deep discounting, with the twin objectives of protecting brand equity and ensuring dealers can rotate stock and then participate in the upcoming restocking cycle.
- Working capital is being managed “judiciously” in this environment; management expects retail momentum in Q3 and production normalisation across plants to help inventory and cash-conversion cycles revert to healthier levels through H2FY26.

Margins, profitability and medium-term guidance

- For UCP, management reiterated a structurally positive margin trajectory driven by volume recovery, mix improvement (via commercial AC and premium RAC), cost-optimisation on “new-table” products and better fixed-cost absorption as utilisation ramps.
- On Voltbek, management reaffirmed a steady progression toward EBITDA breakeven as the franchise scales.

Valuation Methodology

We revise our FY27-28 earnings by 6% respectively to reflect the continued weakness in primary sales driven by elevated channel inventories. We shift the valuation methodology to a SOTP valuation framework, recognising the distinct business drivers and capital intensity across UCP, EMP, EPS and Voltbek and arrive at Sept-26TP of Rs 1,440 (implied 44x Sep'27E P/E). We maintain HOLD given the limited upside from current levels.
